Part X, Line 2:

CI is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d.

Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by CI in their federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. CI's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years respectively, after they are filed.

Part I, Line 2:

Thorough due diligence is conducted in advance of funding to determine whether a recipient will be an appropriate grantee. Potential recipients are required to provide proof of tax status and/or registration documents and their organizational documents. All grantees are notified of the terms and conditions of each grant should it be awarded and grantees indicate acceptance by signature. All international grants are restricted to a clearly defined charitable purpose. All grantees receive a written grant agreement, and by accepting payment the grantee agrees to the conditions of the award. Periodic reports are required that address (1)use of the grant funds,(2)compliance with the terms and conditions of the grant, and (3)progress toward achieving the grant's purpose. The reports are reviewed to confirm that all of the funds have been used for charitable purposes and whether all of the funds have been expended.

Form 990, Schedule I

A handful of Community Initiatives' fiscally sponsored projects make grants. Each program designs review criteria before announcing its program. It then reviews applications for funding. These applications are reviewed by impartial, qualified decisionmakers. Grants are awarded through a written grant agreement which details the terms and reporting requirements. Each project monitors its grant awards through periodic reports and follow-up with awardees. Community Initiatives' accounting team tracks and reports on matching requirements, where applicable.

Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

start-ups, established initiatives, networks, and collaborations. We sponsor initiatives for the benefit of communities in service to social change.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

projects.

These include new incubating nonprofit organizations, collaborative initiatives of philanthropic foundations, and public/private partnerships with government agencies. In FYE 2017, Community Initiatives served 91 projects, throughout California and elsewhere, in the areas of arts & culture(8%), education(25%), social justice(17%), health(12%), human services(16%), environment (11%), and other(11%).

For more information see WWW.COMMUNITYIN.ORG.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

full benefits(health, dental, vision, life & disability insurance).

These services were provided to about 344 employees.

In the area of Grants Management, CI managed the philanthropic relationships of our projects with roughly 308 institutional donors. CI received more than 8,300 gifts, operated a website for its projects through which donations were made, and provided a process for receipt of stock donations. We also tracked the interim and final reporting on grants received and provided financial and programmatic oversight for these grants.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

After the draft Form 990 is prepared, it is reviewed by the Board of Directors and Senior Management. Then the final Form 990 is distributed to all board members for their review and comment before filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

At the board meeting during which a new director is elected, he/she is asked to sign the conflict of interest policy forms prepared by our attorney. At the annual meeting in January, all directors update their forms for the following year.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The independent board of directors, in executive session, annually reviews the performance of its CEO and approves changes in compensation which are compared against data for similar positions in the nonprofit sector. They then instruct the director of human resources to implement changes. This deliberation is recorded in the minutes of the meeting and filed with its corporate documents.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

The organization discloses its financial data upon request during regular business hours and when appropriate staff is available. An annual report is published which includes a summary of the independent audit. This report is widely distributed and is available on our website and upon request to the general public.
